Obituary.

Mrs. MARY MacDOUGALL

Mrs. Mary MacDougall, beloved wife of James MacDougall, passed away at the General Hospital in Calgary on Wednesday, September 22nd, in her 73rd year. She was born in Ordiquhill, Banffshire, Scotland, in 1871, and came to Didsbury in 1909, where she was married to Mr. MacDougall on December 29th of that year. With her husband she lived in the Didsbury district until three years ago, when on account of her failing health, they moved to Calgary, where their home was always open to their many friends.

The large display of flowers and the many friends and neighbours who turned out to her funeral service, indicated her capacity for making friends. Rev. D. Whyte Smith conducted the funeral service in the Didsbury United Church, Saturday, September 25, at 2:30. Mr. Alex Robertson rendered the solo, "Jesus Lover of my Soul," accompanied on the organ by Miss Verna Ferg.

Interment was made in the Didsbury cemetery, with the Messrs. Alvin Hunperger, Jim Stevens, Lee Sanderman, Bert Fisher, W. D. Spence and Alf Brusso, acting as pallbearers.

Herr Fisher had charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Duncan Milne, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bill Stuart and Mr. Stuart, at Cranbrook, returned home last week.

W.I. Notes

Didsbury district W.I. held their executive meeting in the Rosebud Hotel last Saturday afternoon, with representatives from Lone Pine, Mountain View, Westcott and Rugby. Minutes of the last meeting were read, and it was decided to hold the next conference in Didsbury, the convenor, Mrs. Hogg, to arrange details. The subjects of handicrafts were two headings this year, "Household Economics" convened Mrs. B. St. Clair, and "Canadian Industries" convened Mrs. A. Wahl and it was suggested that 5 articles be exhibited by each W.I. under each heading, making ten in all.

A vote of thanks was tendered the hotel management for the kindness in lending the upstairs sitting room for this meeting.

Honey Producers Please Register

Farmers and others who produce one ton of honey or less each year, are required to register at the nearest local ration board. Those who produce more than a ton of honey a year, should register at the nearest branch of the ration administration, Edmonton, Calgary, Grande Prairie or Lethbridge, officials of the War-time Prices and Trade Board announce.

Small producers will be required to report monthly sales to the local ration board office, enclosing D coupons and other valid documents collected with each sale.

Larger producers who register with ration offices will be required to open ration coupon bank accounts and to file monthly reports.

Producers may supply retailers until September 30 without collecting coupons. Those who supply wholesalers are given until October 30 to forego the coupon transaction in order to build up buffer stocks, officially state.

You have it on the word of G. Z. H. Van Hafton, that newspaper reports saying that Beaito Museum was at Cremona weren't referring to the town of Cremona in Alberta.

"The big hunting party which around our way we won't get out in one piece", Mr. Van Hafton assured members of the Kiwanis Club at a Monday's meeting recently, in the Palliser Hotel. Mr. Van Hafton lives at Cremona—comes to Calgary each Monday for Kiwanis luncheon meetings. —Albertan

The Salvation Army Annual Drive

Citizens of Didsbury:

The Salvation Army across Canada is having its annual drive for funds to carry on its "Home Front Work".

Our homes are overcrowded with realistic cases of hardships brought on by the gigantic struggle of the age. Suffering is as prevalent in Canada as it is in other countries.

The Salvation Army is trying, in its humble way, to help stem the tide of chaos in this world of woes.

When someone calls on you, we would appreciate very much if you in your own liberal way of living as you have, in the past, support us in this worthy cause. The Salvation Army, like so many other organizations, needs your support.

Thos H. Smith, (Capt.) Commanding Officer, Olds & District.

Evangelical Church Notes

Sunday, October 3rd, is World Wide Communion Sunday. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at 10:30 a.m. service. It is inspiring to know that Christians all over the world will be observing the Lord's Supper at the same time.

The evening service will be held at 7:30.

Services will be held at Bethel at 2 p.m., when a Harvest Home service will be conducted as well as the Communion service.

Lutheran Church Notes

The Walther League, youth organization of the church, South Alberta Zone, will meet for its fall Rally at Melvin Hall on Sunday, October 3rd. Rev. D. Lantz, of Trochu, will preach in a special service at 11:00 a.m. Afternoon sessions will be devoted to discussion of various Christian knowledge topics and the service projects of the league.

Representations of young people from numerous outlying points as well as officers of the organization from Calgary and Edmonton will be in attendance.

The usual services at Westcott and Didsbury will be dropped on this Sunday.

AC and Mrs. H. R. McGivern, of Calgary, spent the weekend with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Klejko and family.

Strathmore Holsteins Come to Didsbury

John Liesemer, F. W. Leeson & Son and Tom Morris were buyers at the sale of holstein cattle at the C.P.R. Farm at Strathmore, on Friday last.

John Liesemer bought a prairie cow and two young bulls; Leeson & Son one cow and one heifer, and Tom Morris two cows and one young bull. The bulls were all under one year old.

The cows purchased were all outstanding, while the bulls are the very best. The bull purchased by Tom Morris was full brother to a bull coming one year old, which sold for $650.00 at the Strathmore herd sale in Ontario this spring.

These cattle coming from the C.P.R. herd, which is one of the best in Canada, is a welcome addition to the dairy herd in this district.

Not Always Lucky

The final fishing trip of the season for a number of local nimrods last weekend was not entirely a blank, for they brought home ONE 648.

Russell Adr., E. Brinton, Chas. Mortimer, Ed Ford and Ed Wiggin thought they would have a last fling at fishing. The season was closed in this district, so they drove down to the Highwood Creek, the noted fishing stream west of Turner Valley.

It was a splendid stream, but the fish were not biting—or something.

Ed Ford was the only lucky one, but it was a good fish.

They say there were lots of fishermen, but they say they only saw two fish caught all day.

Ed Stutter and Ed Watkins didn't bother with the small flock of ducks they saw along the road, but drove on to where they had heard were thousands. They came back with one small spoonbill.

United Church Notes

In these days of war, when there is so much dividing men and nations, Christians must maintain an unbroken and unbreakable fellowship.

On October 3rd, "World Wide Communion Sunday," followers of Christ everywhere, in army camps and naval bases, on shipboard, in churches large and small, in the homeland and overseas, will bear witness to this fellowship. The world-wide observance of the Lord's Supper will cross frontiers of race, break through barriers of prejudice, and rise above the clash of nations.

In obedience to Him who said, "This do in remembrance of me", all who love Christ are called to gather about their Lord's table on the first Sunday in October, 1943, and recommit themselves to the unfinished task of His Eternal Kingdom.

This sacrament will be celebrated on Sunday at Westcott, Westcott and Didsbury at the usual hour of worship.

Didsbury Jottings

By A.C.H.

We can hardly realize that summer has gone. We are sorry. We love warm, bright, sunny days. Mother Nature must be trying to console us, though; for the peacock in the garden is a riot of gorgeous color. And the virginia creeper we pass on our way down town, is a delight to the eye. They say, out west the colors of the foliage are wonderful.

Several worthy ladies have been putting on teas in aid of the Mission society. These extra jobs that so many women do, seem small in themselves, but collectively, what a lot of work! One of the latest was the tea put on by Mrs. Mary McArthur, for the W.M.F.

The I.O.D.E. has a bone to pick with me. Proceeds of the Super-duty Shop are to go to the I.O.D.E., not the Red Cross, as I wrote last week. You see, the I.O.D.E. has a long list of worthy causes that they do not go to, as well as schools. We apologize for this mistake on our part, and do hope that you will all continue to support the Super-duty Shop, just as splendidly as you have done in the past.

Several people surprised Mrs. Walter Scheidt on Sunday afternoon, on the occasion of her birthday. A very happy time was spent.

A person completely wrapped up in himself, makes a very small parcel.

And as the wall said to the ceiling, "I can't hold you up much longer. I'm plastered, too."

C.W.A.C. Graduation

After completing a full month of basic training, one-hundred and twenty-nine members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps graduate this weekend from No. 2 C.W.A.C. Basic Training Centre, Vermilion.

Of these 37 are from the hatchet girls, from Brandon, 28 from Alberta cities and towns, 43 from British Columbia, 3 from Ontario, and 3 from the United States.

The girls will be posted to various military stations throughout Canada.

Among the graduates was Doris L. Dick, of Elkhorn, Alberta.

A Good Investment

The new hospital, which has just been completed at Brooks, is one of the best investments ever made by the people of the district. The dividends it will pay will not be in cash, but in better health for the people. People of the hospital district and beyond have at their disposal a modern, well-equipped institution, capable of providing for the ill and injured the facilities and surroundings calculated to aid in recovery.

The municipal hospital act was passed by the Alberta legislature over a quarter of a century ago. It has provided hospital facilities for many districts and has proven to be an excellent piece of legislation. Prior to that, country hospitals were few in number and inadequately equipped and supported.

Only through the establishment and maintenance of modern hospitals can rural people obtain the medical care and attention which is their just right. The time has gone by when up-to-date hospitalization is confined to the larger cities.

The Farmer's Contribution

Once again our prairie farmers, with their good partner Nature, have produced an abundance of food for Canada and the United Nations.

It is true that Nature, by means of her vast and mysterious forces contained in the soil, the air, the rain and the sunshine, and all combined in her giant laboratory, is mainly responsible for the crops, but without the aid and guidance of our farmers, our prairie lands, rich as they may be, would not produce one pound of food; for the farmer has to prepare the land to cultivate it and to sow and to toil and to assist in combating those enemies which are continually tending to destroy crops, i.e. weeds, cutworms, wireworms, grasshoppers, sawflies, bacterial and fungous diseases and so forth. But all this preparation and fighting crop enemies requires a great deal of labour. It is therefore remarkable, it seems to me, that in spite of a serious lack of manpower on the farms, our farming families have been able once again to make such an outstanding contribution with their products to the war effort of the United Nations.

I suggest that the Government could well bear in mind this important contribution of our prairie farmers, accomplished under great difficulty, when they are considering an increase in the Board price of wheat.

ITEMS OF INTEREST IN THE WORLD OF FOODSTUFFS

Based on conditions on September 1st the U.S.A. wheat crop is officially estimated at $31,957,000 bushels, as compared with 381,327,000 bushels harvested last year. The United Kingdom has completed negotiations with Canada for the provision of 1,000,000 tons of Canadian flour—Mexico predicts a wheat crop of 500,000 tons, which is 40% below last year's production.

The Canadian farm cash income is officially estimated to have increased 25% in the first six months of 1943, compared with the same period last year—Rumania may have a large surplus of 700,000 to 800,000 tons of fine quality wheat from this year's harvest—The Argentine's first estimate of wheat acreage shows a slight increase over last year's final estimate.

Permit 2-Pants Suits
And Cuffs on Trousers

The Canadian male got this news from the prices board Monday.

He can again buy trousers with cuffs and get two-pant suits.

These things were banned in March last year because developments in the Pacific indicated the entire Australian wool supply might be cut off, and because the rapidly-expanding Canadian armed forces created vast demands for uniforms.

"Recent developments in the Pacific seem to ensure continued availability of Australian wool, and the demands of the armed forces are less of a burden", the board said.

LET'S BE DOING
... while we're planning

• Everybody is thinking a great deal about the future these days . . . planning . . . getting ready for the period to follow the war. All realize that the war may bring surprises—but the tide is turning in our favour.

Chemists and engineers, producing things needed for war, are making discoveries which will mean comforts and conveniences for all of us when peace comes. New methods of making things, new processes, new materials, now being filed away in blue prints and formulae, will bring us many new and useful articles. Many things not available now will be replaced by better models and designs.

You may have plans for a new home, remodelling your present home, new home furnishings. If you are a farmer you will need new and improved equipment and machinery.

Now, while you are thinking and planning, you can do something to insure that your plans can be carried out. Victory Bonds—which can be bought on convenient instalments, with money as you get it—provide a means of keeping your savings intact, earmarked for things you want.

Most Canadians are saving money. Most of us are buying Victory Bonds and when we buy Victory Bonds we are helping to win the war. We are helping to speed the day of victory and we are doing something that will benefit ourselves.

WHAT IS A VICTORY BOND?

A VICTORY BOND is the promise of the Dominion of Canada to repay in cash the face value of the Bond on the date of maturity with half-yearly interest until that time. A Victory Bond is the safest investment in Canada backed by the entire resources of the Dominion. Canada has been issuing bonds for 75 years, and has never failed to pay every dollar of principal and interest when due. A Victory Bond is an asset readily marketable at any time.

Fire Prevention Week
October 3rd to 9th

Week of October 3 to 9 has been set aside by Royal Proclamation as Fire Prevention Week, for the purpose of impressing upon the public the seriousness of the enormous waste of life and property caused by fire, and the steps that can be taken to reduce this terrible and unnecessary wastage.

When it is considered that Canada's loss by fire in 1942 was 1,000 lives and over $31,000,000 property damage, it is easily apparent that something must be done about it. Fire is a disease that annually saps our national wealth, and every citizen should resolve to do his bit to wipe out this menace to our happiness and prosperity.

Every citizen can be a soldier in this campaign by simply being careful with fire, by disciplining himself in his smoking habits, by seeing that every fire hazard in his home, store or factory is removed, and by knowing what to do should a fire break out. Our soldiers, sailors and airmen are battling a grim enemy on far-away fronts. Let us battle that other enemy — the Fire Demon — on "Home Front". We, too, can help to win this war by preventing fires. Every fire is man-made in its entirety, but it might easily reach the proportions of a conflagration. Our duty is to see that a fire does not start.

This week, in the press, over the radio, in theatres and from the platform, John Q. Citizen will be exhorted to use every care with fire, not only during Fire Prevention Week, but every week in the year. It would be well for him to take this advice to heart and to make Canada a fire-safe country in which to live. We need only to call to mind two holocausts which have occurred during the past year in order to show the tragedy which can follow in the wake of fire. These are the Coconut Grove Night Club fire in Boston, in which 492 people lost their lives, and the Knights of Columbus Hotel fire in St. John's, Newfoundland, in which 98 lives were snuffed out. We can't be Too Careful with Fire!

"Words of Winston Churchill" New Radio Feature

What makes the words of Winston Churchill famous? Is it the man who utters them, or the times and circumstances in which they are uttered? The first may be found in both. Churchill is a man of courage and principle, chosen to lead at a time when the world had been brought to the very brink of ruination by lack of courage and lack of principle.

Every Sunday evening, commencing October 3rd, a series of radio broadcasts will be made at 7:00 p.m., over CFAC, entitled: "THE WORDS OF W. WINSTON CHURCHILL". Broadcasts feature the well-known columnist and commentator, Richard J. Needham, author of "One Man's Opinion", which appears daily, Monday to Friday, in the Calgary Herald.

In this unique radio feature, sponsored by the Calgary Brewing and Malting Co. Ltd., makers of "Ginger Ale", the most famous utterances of the British Prime Minister will be presented and discussed. The words are discussed in the light of current history, as symbols of leadership by one of the world's greatest leaders, and—most important of all, perhaps—as the outward expression of the faith and determination of English-speaking people all over the world.

"The Words of Winston Churchill" will summarize, in a series of fifteen broadcasts, starting October 3rd, seven crowded years of defeat and victory, and will show the manner in which one man, because he symbolized the tolerance and dignity of his fellow-peoples, changed the course of history.

Germination Tests

Frost damage to cereal grains has again been serious in some districts. This means loss to the farmer through reduced yields and lower grades. Many farmers will almost certainly find it necessary to buy new seed, especially of oats and barley.

It is never wise to assume that seed will germinate giving a high percentage of vigorous seedlings.

It is always wise to make a germination test, or to have one made.

Three common actions are open to the farmer. They are:

- Official government test for which a nominal charge is made. Send samples to Plant Products Division (Seed Branch), Winnipeg, Saskatchewan or Calgary.
- Make home germination test. A printed card, giving full instructions, may be obtained from the Agricultural Department, The North-West Line Elevators Association, Edmonton.
- Take sample of about three ounces to the nearest line elevator associated with this Department. The agent will forward it to us for testing. We test only wheat, oats, barley, rye and corn. Other seeds must be sent to Plant Products Division laboratories.

Last year, we tested over 11,000 samples. Of these, only 3,000 came in before Christmas. As a result, we were taxed beyond our capacity in March, and many farmers had to wait until April for their tests. Please help us to avoid congestion in the spring by delivering samples to the local elevator agent early.

The subject is discussed more fully in a printed leaflet. Get one from your nearest line elevator agent.

FARSIGHTED householders are seeing the urgent need of preparing their homes now against this winter's coal shortage. They are acting now!

HEATING SYSTEMS MUST BE EFFICIENT: HOMES SHOULD BE ADEQUATELY INSULATED.

Here are some jobs you should be doing NOW!

- Have your entire heating system inspected. Order necessary repairs.
- Have your furnace thoroughly cleaned by a competent man. Insulate furnace and pipes where necessary.
- Be sure that you have sufficient storm windows and that all windows and doors fit tightly. Have cracks in walls repaired. Weatherstrip wherever it is necessary. Consider seriously the insulation of ceiling and walls.

Many homes waste as much as 60% of their fuel through inefficient heating equipment, inadequate insulation and other heat losses. Winter is just around the corner. Prepare NOW!

History Of Alberta

To Be Recorded Through Aid Of The Rockefeller Foundation

The early history of Alberta with all its folklore, pioneer recollections and other data connected with the beginning of this province will be permanently recorded at the University of Alberta through the foundation of the Rockefeller Foundation, New York.

Robert E. Gard, A.B., M.A., from Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y., who arrived in Calgary recently, has been sent by Rockefeller Foundation to work with the University of Alberta in starting the Alberta folklore and local history project.

"The purpose of my stay here," said Mr. Gard, in an interview, "will be to collect the stories of old ranchers, tall tales from the old-timers, material from remote mountain districts and other colorful historic background of Alberta."

"Archives at the university will be established in connection with this work and they will be made available to any writer interested in using this body of material."

"Another purpose of my visit will be to establish a local history archive at the university where manuscripts and records will be kept."

IT MISSED HIM

The Parliamentary candidate had thundered through an impassioned address at his opening meeting.

"And he shouted 'if a lie has passed my lips this evening may a thunderbolt from the skies fall on my head!'

As he spoke the platform collapsed in a cloud of dust, and the orator disappeared from view.

The audience sat spellbound. After a few tense moments the speaker emerged from the wreckage.

"Gosh!" exclaimed a voice from the rear of the hall. "It's missed him."

The sergeant halted the new sentry opposite the man he was to relieve.

"Give over your orders," he said.

The old sentry recited off the routine instructions with confidence, but one of the special orders baffled him.

"Come on, man!" said the sergeant impatiently.

"On no account," stammered the sentry, "are you to let any question-able characters through the lines, except the colonel's wife!"

CHAPTER II.

ANNE JAMESON attempted to slam her bedroom door in the nobleman's face. But a booted foot planted itself against the wood tearing the door from her grasp. Another step and the man had clamped a hand on the girl's arm.

"Damnation! You have flouted me long enough!"

"Denys!" The girl sprang from her chair with blind fury she fought to break his hold. Her head drove to sink teeth into his arm, but the thick cloth of the greatest protection deflected them.

Out of the room came Estelle, flinging herself upon the man. The fellow staggered and before he could recover himself Anne had writhed out of his grip and darted under his arm.

He clutched at her, tearing the silken robe from her shoulders. Instantly, the tall man was aghast at the scene. From the shadow sprang the tall man's confederate to head off the girl racing for the stairs.

The tall man had not stirred. "Am I too, my lord?" remarked Jonathan.

The bony face was livid. "I'll see you in hell first!"

JONATHAN'S arm straightened and the rapier bit into the thigh of the steward. "Unharness your fine clothes from you in ribbon style."

The tall man, his face twisted in pain from the sword prick, turned sighted a man holding a pistol at sight who was in the act of turning the knife of his servants into the clothes of his servants.

As the master removed his garments one by one, heaved the unconscious man into the room and closed the door with a movement of his foot. One of the servants stirred uneasily as Jonathan fingered the key in the lock.

"You—are you not going to murder us?"

"No," Jonathan said. "If you will surrender those knives I shall surely loose them in hell and let my legs loose."

The two knives were tossed at Jonathan's feet. His lordship said sourly, "You shall rue this night's work in my castle, but I will permit us in here if you will, but I shall be downstairs and after you are gone we are out of earshot."

"Now remove your clothes," said Jonathan. "Strip yourself to the skin."

Slightly mystified, but willingly, the servants obeyed, making a pile of robes, shawls, breeches, hose and such that stank. "Now," said Jonathan, "toss everything into the fireplace and start a blaze."

The tall man had not stirred.

"Am I too, my lord?" remarked Jonathan.

As the master removed his garments one by one,

"It's my war-job to keep my family fit!"

"That's why I'm following Canada's Official Food Rules and serving a whole grain cereal every day. Usually our whole grain cereal is Nabisco Shredded Wheat. It's 100% whole wheat with added vitamins and minerals. We think it's a grand energy food for breakfast or any other meal. Look for the familiar package of your food store."

Could Handle Bees

British Pastor Able To Free Bomber
Plane Of Swarm

It happened on an airfield in Britain. Working on a giant Halifax bomber at its dispersal point, the ground crew suddenly heard a strange buzzing noise and saw a great procession of bees entering and leaving a small hole in the tail of the plane.

The Halifax was due to bomb Germany that night, bees or no bees.

A frantic search throughout the district ensued until a local clergyman was discovered who said he could handle the unwelcome passengers. Gingerly the ground crew stripped part of the fabric of the tail, and the clergyman, wearing gloves, found the queen bee—whom the bees had followed by the rest of the colony.

The ground crew patched up the fabric and a few hours later the bomber took off for Cologne.

The average depth of the oceans is 12,450 feet.

descending like a club on the neck of the man with the gun.

THE blow sent the man crashing forward with a force that splintered the stair railing, but had been delivered too late to prevent the crash of the pistol. The gun cracked and Mis Denys sagged and sank slowly to the floor. Jonathan caught one of the balusters below the broken hand rail, ripped the pistol from its fastening and, without a word of thanks, dropped it on the floor. The man who was in the act of turning the knife of his servants into the clothes of his servants.

The advantage should have been wholly on the side of the two servants, but Mis Denys had reacted at the miscarriage of his plans and perhaps scented the mistake of hating furiously, driving his point at Jonathan's chest, the man who had been forced to descend the length of steel rods, then almost in the same motion, swing the cudgel a second time. The knobby oak hand rail had broken at the hand and wrist. Two rails on the end of the baluster, bent like claws, cracked through flesh and bone from wrist to knuckles, became expanded, the carvings on the glass and the sword sheath cracked from the grasp of his lordship.

The tall man attempted to regain the weapon as he clattered down the stairs but another arm of the steward forced him back. From either side rushed the nobleman's two remaining henchmen to take up the battle with varied daggers. Denys dropped the curved dagger, stepped again, catching the rapier and rising in time to meet the additional menace, properly armed for the first time.

The steel stopped the servants flat-footed. They retreated warily, saw that they were about to be hemmed in by a corner of the hall and backed round into the doorway of a convenient room. With them went their lordship, equally anxious to avoid the blade which wielded so expertly for all that the man he now possessed it was undoubtedly much the stronger.

JONATHAN, his lips in a grim smile, knelt again, digging his fingers into the collar of the man he had knocked senseless at the beginning of the fray. Behind them, Jonathan had dashed his purpose; he was upon them, dragging that limp body after him and forcing the trio further into the room with a swing of the sword.

Across the threshold himself, he

the servants performed a task like on the man on the floor, Jonathan turned toward the door, but at the threshold paused to snarl the man who had been his steward and toss the broken weapon back into the room. Then he locked the door and pocketed the key.

SOMETHING stirred in the shadowy owl hall. Monsieur Denys pushing himself up dazedly from the floor heard the man who had intruded into the room drop beside the Frenchman as the fellow was fumbling the bloody gash across his forehead. "Just a small wound," Denys shook his head, then panted intently at his questioner. "Who are you?"

"I am a friend," snarled Jonathan, "and the taller man is your master. You have nothing to fear now. Everything is all right, provided no harm has come to Mistress Jameson."

They found her at the foot of the stairs, half-fainted, crumpled heap in a white nightgown. Anne had tripped or fallen in her sleep, the lighted. Denys knelt beside the girl and looking up at Jonathan said, "She's all right."

Then Knowles, the innkeeper, appeared with a light, the girl Estelle behind him with a jar of water.

MURMUR indicated that Miss Anne was recovering. Soon she was able to swallow from the cup uncooked spaghetti (1 lb.)

1/2 cup butter or other fat

1 1/2 cups strained, cooked tomatoes

1 small onion, finely chopped

1 cup dried tomatoes

1/2 teaspoons salt

1/4 teaspoon pepper

1 green pepper, seeded and chopped

1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

2 tablespoons Benson's or Canada Cold Starch

1/2 cup cold water

1/2 cup grated sharp cheese

Wash spaghetti in cold water, then cover generously with boiling salted water and let boil until tender (10 to 12 minutes). Strain, rinse briefly to remove starch, stir gently and add butter. Meanwhile, prepare sauce by combining the strained tomatoes, onion, celery, salt, pepper, cayenne, green pepper, dried tomatoes, Worcestershire sauce, then stirring in the corn starch which has been blended with the water. Place all over low heat and allow to cook until thick. Serve at least 1/2 hour and longer if possible for best flavor. Pour over drained spaghetti, turn into heated serving dish and top with grated cheese.

NEW SCHEDULE PRESERVES RATIONING EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 30, 1943

Preserves rationing gives the consumer a number of choices both of products and sizes of containers. Because of the wide range of container sizes and the variation in buying habits across the country it was necessary to put the system into operation and then make adjustments on the basis of experience.

Now that preserves rationing has been in effect for several weeks, it is possible to make some increases in coupon values. The new schedule is announced below and is effective September 30th.

The new doubled ration allowances for molasses, extracted and comb honey will enable consumers in areas where consumption of these products is heavy, to buy more and still leave enough for districts where the total demand is light.

The increased ration allowances for corn, cane and blended table syrups and maple syrup are adjusted to bring coupon values more closely into line with the great variety of container sizes now in use.

NOW BECOME VALID SEPTEMBER 30th

The validity date of these coupons has been moved forward from the original October 14th to September 30th.

This has been done to accommodate purchasers of some items which at this season of the year are normally bought in large units.

Coupons D-6 and D-7 will become valid on November 11th and the original schedule will be continued from then on, with two coupons becoming valid every four weeks.

Elkton Willing Workers will hold an extra meeting at the home of Mrs. Hogg on Wednesday, October 6, as the regular meeting will be held Tuesday, October 12, at the home of Mrs. Hoogendyk, as a joint meeting with Rugby, to discuss the packing of the Christmas parcels for the boys overseas.

CARD OF THANKS

On behalf of those whom we serve, I express my thanks to your townspeople for their kind response to my recent appeal for funds. They extended a cordial welcome and they gave cheerfully and generously, which made my call both pleasant and profitable. I am also grateful to Mr. Thomas and Mr. Morgan who accompanied me on my calls, and thereby shortened the time required to complete the canvas.

Roy P. Thompson, for Canadian National Institute For the Blind.
